

From: Lawndale News [mailto:lawndalenews@lawndalenews.com]

Sent: Friday, January 13, 2012 1:27 PM

To: Lawndale News Mailer

Subject: Lawndale News - January 13th, 2012

Noticiero Bilingüe
LAWNDALE
Newsletter news

200,000
Circulation
Weekly

Local News | Business News | Education | Health | Food | Commentary | Classified Ads

'A Day Late, a Penny Short'

By: Ashmar Mandou - In a latest attempt to galvanize reaction among the immigrant community, the Obama administration revealed a proposal last Friday that will reduce the time of separation of children and spouses of undocumented immigrants applying for legal status. "While I commend Obama for taking a positive measure towards immigration reform, I feel that it is not enough," said Carlos Arango, executive director of Casa Aztlán. Arango described Obama's proposal as a 'common sense' one that should have been introduced in the beginning of his administration. "He promised comprehensive immigration reform, it was the bulk of his campaign promise. But there were more deportations under his administration than his predecessor." Read more >

Heroic Chicago's El Niño Azteca The Aztec Kid El Niño Azteca

The legacy of Francisco "Paco" Rodriguez, a professional boxer and national Golden Gloves champion from Cicero, was carefully selected among thousands to represent Chicago and Gift of Hope Organ and Tissue Donor Network in the 2012 Rose Parade® on Jan. 2 in Pasadena, California. His brother, Alex Rodriguez (left), rode on the float in Paco's honor holding his championship belt, along with Alexis Sloan (right), the recipient of Paco's heart who held a photo of the fallen hero. Known as "El Niño Azteca" or "The Aztec Kid", Paco died at just 25 years old after sustaining injuries from a title bout in November 2008. Read more >

